Dr. Gershaw Addresses Well Attended Meeting in Gleichen

Addressing a well attended meeting in Gleichen on Tuesday afternoon of this week, Dr. F. W. Gershaw of Medicine Hat, briefly outlined the numerous achievements of the Liberal Government during the past five years. Dr. Gershaw is the Liberal Nominee in the Medicine Hat Constituency for the coming Federal election on March 26th next.

Mr. T. Beach, President of the Gleichen Branch of the Liberal Association, acted as Chairman, and introduced the principal speaker. Hon. C. G. Powers, Postmaster General for the Dominion of Canada, also slated to speak on the same platform, was unable to be present at the meeting due to poor transportation connections at Lethbridge.

In opening his address, Dr. Gershaw paid a very high tribute to citizens of Canada in general, in the patriotic and united efforts that are being conducted to put an end to the present war. He stated that in his particular territory, he had already had the privilege of witnessing a few of the heroic deeds, and remarked on how the hearts of the people have become united for the one common end. He also paid tribute to the women of Canada, who are busy knitting and contributing their share towards the War effort of the Dominion.

"War on a big scale requires a great deal of planning," said the doctor, "and this is a big contract for any government. Plans for the conduct of this war must be laid more carefully than those of twenty-five years ago."

"We have two fronts to face in Canada, first the economic, and second the Agricultural. On the economic front, extreme care and judgement is required that Canada may come out in a sound position. This, particularly is true in agriculture. There is also the home life of our citizens to be considered. We cannot have a repetition of what followed the last war through lack of preparation for the placing of men who served in the lines. Along the agricultural front, preparation is already being made against an upheaval following the war. This preparation is aimed at the preservation of home life, and is something to look forward to."

Continuing his address, he outlined how numerous Canadian products had been placed on a quota basis and at an established price. These products were for export to England and while trade routes to this country remained open, there is at the present time a market for an unlimited quantity of Canadian ham, bacon, dairy products and cattle, not to mention the many other products. He emphasized the fact that while these markets are open, Canadian farmers should be producing commodities for which there is a certainty of market. Canada is now exporting five million pounds of pork per week to the Old Country which is greater than she has ever done before.

Commenting upon the wheat situation, Dr. Gershaw stated that this was not quite so sure as other lines of production, due to the fact that former importing countries are now inducing their farmers, by way of bonus to produce their own grain.

Among the other departments of the Liberal government, which are functioning very satisfactorily are the Supply Board, and the Wheat Board. Dr. Gershaw explained in some detail the functions of these two organizations pointing out numerous advantages offered to citizens and producers of the dominion.

Dr. Gershaw addressed the gathering for approximately an hour and a quarter, touching upon various phases of government work. At no time did he criticize opposition parties, nor did he make any predictions concerning the election. His appeal came "straight from the shoulders", and was based upon the previous records of the Federal Government. Quoting the chairman's closing remarks, "Dr. Gershaw, in everyday life, is used to serving the people in his district, and through this election, he wishes to widen his scope for serving."

It is understood that a public meeting will be held in Bassano at some future date, when Dr. Gershaw will make an appeal to citizens of this district. However, the date of this meeting has not been announced as yet. Watch for further particulars.

Rosemary Hall Most Up-to-date In District

With the laying of a hardwood floor in the new Rosemary Hall, work on one of the most modern and up-to-date dance halls in Central Alberta is expected to be completed. The new Hall, a single storey stucco building, has a twelve foot by eighteen foot stage constructed at one end, with ample space for dressing rooms, etc., essential in a hall to be used for entertainment purposes. The building sits over a half sized finished basement, containing a large store room for supplies and equipment.

A feature of the new hall is its modern and up-to-date air conditioning plant. This expensive equipment, comprising one unit, will supply heat to the building during the winter months, and keep cool air in motion in the auditorium during the hot months. Thus persons attending future social functions in Rosemary will be assured of the most pleasant atmosphere possible.

Plans are being made for a gala opening dance in the hall, with special music to be supplied by an outside orchestra. As plans are completed, a definite announcement of the date will be made. In the meantime, citizens of the district are asked to be on the look out for a big celebration. Residents of Rosemary are proud of the achievements they have been making during the recent months. The new hall is just one of them—a new grain elevator is also near completion; a cheese factory has been built, and several other new buildings have taken form in the little community located on the Irrigation District.

E.I.D. NOTES

The District has been advised of the appointment of Mr. Percy Powell as contact man for the Bassano District.

Rosemary Players Entertain Local Audience

A fair sized crowd of local citizens attended the play "Bound to Marry," presented in the Masonic Hall on Monday evening of this week by the Rosemary M. I. A. Dramatic Club. The play was well received by the audience and much credit is due the Director of the Rosemary Group for the manner in which each member of the cast carried their part.

The Play unfurled a story of a young girl who encountered difficulties with her aunt in choosing her husband. The many exciting incidents which arose in the play, provided a great deal of entertainment to the audience.

To pick any particular star in the cast would be difficult, as all characters were well cast, and thoroughly trained. The two negroes probably captured a great deal of attention with their humorous actions and sayings.

The play was staged in Rosemary on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week, and in Duchess on Wednesday evening of this week.

On Friday evening, March 1st, the play will be staged in the Gem Community Hall. Citizens of the Colony are advised that two hours of fine entertainment are in store for them, and are urged to attend. The cast of characters was as follows:

Betty Jane Dove Cleo Lebaron
Agustus G. Baker Lamar Palmer
Hilda Slater Lorraine Norton
Samuel Boyer Douglas LeBaron
June Rae Ethel Conrad
Billy Pouter Eric Thornhill
Evelyn Grace Neva Orr
Mose S. Lincoln Ernie Anderson
Mandy Snook Mrs. Nellie Gibb

The play was directed by Eric Thornhill, and Mrs. E. Anderson assisted with the make-up.

MEMBERSHIP FEES MUST BE PAID TO GROUP SECRETARY

Attention of Social Crediters in the Bassano District is drawn to the fact that membership fees in the Bassano Old United Social Credit Group must be paid to the Group Secretary only, Mrs. Geo. Morrison. To date a number of fees have been collected from citizens for Association with the Social Credit League, of Alberta, but these fees do not entitle persons to a vote in the Local Group. To obtain a vote in the Group the necessary membership fees must be paid to the Secretary.

The Old United Social Credit Group will hold a public meeting in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Monday evening, next, March 4th, at 8 p.m. Several business matters are coming up for discussion, and all members and associate members are requested to please attend.

EASTER COMES EARLY THIS YEAR

Easter this year comes on March 24th, the earliest since 1913, and the earliest it will come till the year 2000. The date for the commemoration of Christ's rising from the dead owes its nobility to the capricious moon. Easter Sunday is always the first Sunday after the full moon which happens on or next after the 21st day of March, which in northern climates is the first day of spring.

Cain Speaks At Meeting

Mr. W. E. Cain M.L.A. for Bow Valley, and Nominee for the forthcoming election in the Empress-Bow Valley Constituency, addressed a gathering of approximately seventy-five Social Crediters in the I. O. O. F. Hall in Bassano on Wednesday evening of this week. The address took the form of a parting speech from the government member, as a change in constituency boundaries made last year now places the voters of Bassano outside of his constituency. Persons from all parts of the district attended the meeting, and a great deal of enthusiasm was shown over the speakers remarks.

Speaking for approximately one hour, Mr. Cain reviewed the governments Monetary Reform to date, and outlined their plans for the future. He also outlined the platform of the Social Credit party in the forthcoming election, and expressed an earnest plea for support of the government candidate in this constituency. In answer to claims and statements made at the recent session of the government by leaders of opposition parties, Mr. Cain explained a few points that cleared matters of importance, to the satisfaction of those persons present.

CANDIDATE SKETCHES

Mr. Donald J. McKinnon, Independent Candidate in the Gleichen Provincial Constituency, is a farmer in the Carleton Place district. For a long time he was associated with the U.F.A. movement, both Provincially and Federally, and was elected as standard bearer of the Independent Group for the Gleichen Constituency.

He is the son of Lauchlin McKinnon, the well-known rancher and farmer who has interests at Dalmead, and just east of Bassano. The candidate was the President of the Gleichen Unity Council, and the man primarily responsible for the Unity or Independent movement in this Constituency. Mr. Charles McKinnon, an old-timer of Bassano, is an uncle of his.

McKinnon's platform has been based on progressive administration, with the cutting of waste and loose government spending. He is slated to address his Bassano followers at a not to distant date.

Mr. J. H. Coldwell, of Kathryn, C.C.F. Candidate in the Gleichen constituency, was born on a farm in Ontario. He has been in Alberta since 1907, and served in France as a signaller during the Great war. Since the war he has been employed by the C.N.R. as telegraph operator and station agent at Kathryn.

Interested in co-operative enterprises, he believes the solution to our present economic stalemate lies in the development of the co-operative philosophy until it reaches the whole national economy.

To date, the Social Credit Nomination has not been announced. However, it is expected that I. M. McCune of Irricana will be the choice of the advisory board of the Government. A brief sketch of the candidate will be given next week.

A shipment of articles made in the local headquarters will be sent to Calgary next week.

The General meeting of the Alberta Red Cross will be held in the Palliser Hotel, Calgary, on Friday, March 8th, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. James Johnston, President of the Bassano Branch, will represent this district. Every member enrolled in this Division in good standing is entitled to attend the meeting.

Be ready to attend the Public Meeting and Entertainment to be held in the Masonic Hall the first week in April. Further particulars will be published in the near future.

EXPECT INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE SPEAK HERE

Announcement was made this week that Mr. D. J. McKinnon, Independent candidate in the Gleichen constituency, will commence his campaign with a public meeting in Strathmore this weekend. It is expected that Mr. McKinnon will address a meeting in Bassano sometime during the two weeks following. Watch for definite announcements.

Readers Given Opportunity To Express Opinions

In the coming election campaigns, the columns of this news paper will remain open to all political parties contesting, and a true and unbiased report of all public meetings held in Bassano and surrounding districts will be given. However, we reserve for our editorial column the right to make any comments upon points arising out of addresses given by candidates at meetings.

Under the department of "Letters to the Editor", correspondence will be welcomed by the publishers, as long as such correspondence is signed by the writer. Signatures are not necessarily for publication, but rather to show the publisher that the letters are written in good faith, and names of writers will be held back upon request. Through this department, the numerous political opinions may be compared, but no letter bearing propaganda or political slurs will be published.

Political propaganda will however be published when paid for, as regular advertising rates. Articles in this class must be signed by the candidate or some other representative for the authority of publication.

POLITICAL PROGRESS

With less than three weeks to go, the provincial election campaign is well under way this week in preparation for the vote on March 21.

The week began with 121 candidates in the running for the 57 seats, as compared with the 240 who contested the 63 seats in 1935. More nominees were being added rapidly, however, to the 51 Independents, 31 C. C. F.—ers, 25 Social Credit—ers, five Independent Progressives, four Liberals, two Laborites, two Communists and one "United Worker" who were in the field by the week-end. The Social Credit board of strategy announced it could have a candidate for every seat, and it was expected that there would be an Independent in the running for every riding too.

The rise of the Independents has been nothing short of sensational in the past few days, in the estimation of non-partisan political observers in Edmonton. From many ridings in the south and central parts of Alberta they received reports indicating that citizens are turning sharply away from partyism toward the Independent in each constituency.

There is a widespread belief that the Aberhart organization will not win more than four seats throughout the south, that estimate presumes that a Social Credit—er will take one of the five seats in Calgary and that Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of Lands and Mines, has a good chance of retaining Cardston.

A similar estimate of the party's chances in the south is reported to have been even within the party caucus during the legislature session, and after dissolution of the house some of the members admitted that they were sure the party would not win half a dozen seats south of Red Deer.

They expect to get a few more in the central and northern parts of the province, but the Independents and the C. C. F. the reported now to be gaining ground rapidly in those areas too. The conviction that they have little chance of winning the election anyway is declared to explain the willingness, if not the eagerness, of Social Credit members of the house to dip into the public treasury for $2,000 each in exchange for seven days of skimming through legislation and a $25,000 budget, in the last session of the legislature.

There is another story emanating from Social Credit members of the recently-killed house, too; it is that, seizing whatever chance they have of being re-elected, those ex-M.L.A.'s decided to continue the leadership of William Aberhart for the campaign, because he is regarded as the best "tub-thumper" and "rabble-rouser" in the party and in the whole province. But, that story says, the men who made up the government side of the legislature do not intend to have him as premier again in the unlikely event that the party wins.

In fact, it is expected widely that if Aberhart runs in Calgary and even if one Social Credit—er is elected there, it will not be Aberhart who wins. That belief is based on the report that Aberhart was far down the list, in order of preference, of suggested nominees drawn up by the Social Credit organization in Calgary—the list in which Hon. E. C. Manning was not included at all, although he wanted to be a Calgary candidate again. If Aberhart could not get first choice among the party "faithfuls" who made up the delegates, he certainly cannot expect to head the Social Credit popular vote, it was commented. It is thought likely that Fred Anderson will get the largest Social Credit vote, if he is included in the slate which is picked by the social Credit board of strategy headed by Aberhart himself.

The federal election to be held March 26 is getting little attention in Alberta, and that is the direct result of Aberhart's strategy in forcing the provincial election at the same time. But the strategy seems to have backfired; its effect is that most effort is being concentrated against him. However, at the beginning of this week, 51 candidates for federal seats had been nominated in Alberta, 16 of them were Liberals, 15 were C.C.F., 11 were Conservatives, eight of them were "New Democracy-Social Credit," and one "United Progressive." There still was no indication of what support Social Credit might expect from Hon. W. D. Herridge and his "New Democracy" party.

There is no such investigation, however, which can justify the record of the provincial "treasury branches." Last year they cost $326,702 to operate, according to government figures. They had deposits totalling $1,705,623. That is, it cost taxpayers 20 per cent of the total to gather the deposits that are lying in the treasury branches, if they still are there. It is the costliest system of assembling money that is known in Canada. The estimates for the next year show the cost of operation more than $8,000 higher.

In the past year, it cost $326,702 to pay out $69,927 in bonuses for purchases of "Alberta-made products," according to government figures; that is, it cost $4.67 for each dollar paid out. According to the government's most optimistic estimates as it appears in the budget, it will cost $3.35 for every dollar paid out during the next year.

In defence of that record showing operation costs

WHO MAY VOTE IN FEDERAL ELECTION?

The Dominion Elections Act of 1938 has the following requirements for a voter in the federal election: He must be 21 years of age on or before the polling day; British subject by birth or naturalization; ordinarily resident in the Dominion twelve months immediately preceding polling day, and resident in the electoral district at the date of issue of the writ for the election.

Every person is a British subject who (a) is born in any of His Majesty's Dominions or on a British ship, no matter what was the nationality of his or her parents; (b) was born elsewhere of a father who, at the time of the child's birth was a British subject; (c) or has been personally naturalized under the Imperial Naturalization Act in Canada or in other of the Dominions; (d) or has had his name included in certificate of naturalization granted a parent under the same Act; (e) is the child of a person naturalized in Canada before Jan. 1, 1918, other than under the Imperial Naturalization Act, and was a minor and a resident of Canada at the time of the naturalization of the parents.

A woman becomes a British subject if she has married a man who at date of marriage was born or naturalized British subject. Or if she married a man who was alien at time of marriage, but becomes naturalized prior to Jan. 15, 1932. If a woman marries an alien who becomes naturalized after Jan. 15, 1932, she may acquire citizenship by registering a declaration that she desires to acquire British nationality.

There are several ways in which British nationality may be lost. An individual may become naturalized in another country; or if naturalized her may have the certificate of naturalization cancelled. A woman who has before Jan. 15, 1932, married a man who at date of marriage was not a British subject loses her citizenship. A woman who after Jan. 15, 1932, marries an alien has by virtue of the marriage acquired her husband's nationality. A woman whose husband has ceased to be a British subject, may register a declaration that she desires to retain her British nationality. Otherwise she acquires her husband's change of allegiance.

ISSUE 55,000 TOURIST GUIDES

Tourists entering Alberta this season will be given abundance of information concerning the attractions of this province.

No less than 55,000 folders will be issued by the provincial publicity department, giving mileage tables, locations of points of interest, vacation trips, and suggested routes, and other valuable information that will be welcomed.

Officials of the Alberta Motor Association have been advised that this material will be ready for distribution at the outset of the season so that it will be a valuable guide to all visitors.

Furthermore, motor visitors will be given a "Welcome" sticker for the windshield of their car, so that they may easily be identified as coming from outside the province and entitled to every possible courtesy and attention.

Importance of attracting the tourist to this province has been one of the main needs stressed by the A. M. A. Thus, officials of this organization are bending every effort to co-operate with others that are striving to develop this lucrative trade.

In addition to folders and publicity booklets, some 25,000 new almost seven times as high as those of chartered banks, the government has made the claim. In its election propaganda, that the "treasury branches" should not show a profit, because a profit would mean reduced purchasing power. Business men and other observers point out, however, that all the people of the province must make up the difference between cost and receipts through taxes, and that there is a real loss of purchasing power entailed in that operating loss, effecting each taxpayer.

CALENDAR ASS'N.
SUGGESTS "LEAP YEAR DAY."Thirty days hath September,
April, June and November;
All the rest have thirty-one,
Excepting February alone,
Which hath but twenty-eight,
In some years twenty-nine.Till Leap Year gives it twenty-nine.It was Julius Caesar who thought up a calendar so cockeyed that millions of folk today must memorize dates to figure when they'll get their next pay cheque.Caesar made February an undersized bloke that is always getting out of step, and 1940 is one of the years in which it is out of step.
Some people will get an added day's pay this month, but others
— those who are paid by the month — will work an extra day without pay.(February would jump into the 30-day class if the revised calendar proposed by the World Calendar Association were adopted.
The necessary extra day in Leap Year is fitted in after June 30 in the association calendar, and is called Leap Year Day — a universal holiday. By February, as the second month in a quarter, would have 30 days, along with all other months except January, April, July and October, which are allotted 31.)As it is now, on the putting-out side, a corporation on a weekly basis with a $10,000,000 annual payroll may have to set aside an extra $40,000 for February 29th.Perhaps folk should be glad to put up with February, even marvel that the calendar is as orderly as it is. Before Julius, time-keeping was pretty haphazard.Caesar's astronomer, in 46 B.C., found the solar year was 365 1/4 days long. So Caesar decreed that every fourth year he 366 days long and the rest 365. He wanted a year with 12 months — including one July named for himself — but the number 12 didn't divide evenly into 365. So he staggered the months.He gave the old months (January, March, July, September and November) 31 days each and the even months 30. But that totaled 366 — one too many. It was then that February got the axe. He gave it 29 days for normal years, 30 days in Leap Year.That calendar went along nicely until Julius' nephew, Augustus came along and wanted to name a month for himself. He decided that his month, August, should have as many days as Julius'. So he borrowed that day from February, leaving it 28 eight in normal years, so he could hike August up to 31 days. Then to prevent three 31 day months from falling in a row he changed September and November to 30-day months, October and December to 31 days.Well, Not ExactlyThus the calendar stands today — except that Leap Year does not actually fall every four years. In the 16th century the more precise astronomers of Pope Gregory XIII found that the earth made its normal journey around the sun 11 minutes and 14 seconds faster than 365 1/4 days. This meant that the universal clock was losing three days in every 400 years.
Gregory promptly dropped 10 days from the calendar (between October 5 and October 15) to make up for lost time.To prevent future losses he reduced the number of Leap Years falling in a 400-year period from 100 to 97, by making the last Leap year — except where the number of the century is divisible by four.

Thus 1800 A.D. and 1900 were not Leap Years, but 2000 will be.

On The Hockey Front . . .

The Intermediate "Series" play off this week saw seven of the fifteen entries fall by the way including last year's Champions, the Turner Valley Elks.

The Bassano Bearcats, who received a bye in the first round, are slated to go in action against the Old Sun Indian Grads. The Grads defeated the Crossfield Club.

HOCKEY DANCE POSTPONED

Due to the prevailing weather and road conditions the Bassano Bearcats Hockey Club have been forced to cancel their Amateur Hour and Dance on Friday, March 1st.

The date has been set back till March 15th.

The Amateur Hour is possibly one of the finest forms of amateur entertainment. The postponement however, will give the club a chance to procure a first class array of talent.

The feature of the night will be the Quiz Contest in which 10 members of the audience will participate. There is a prize and no entry is necessary, except attendance at the Hour.

Ralph Arrison, Manager of the Club, will act as Master of Ceremonies.

So any person in the district who has talent don't be afraid to win a ten dollar bill by sending your entry to Ted Stiles.

The Rutaskas' Rhythm Rascals will play for a dance following the program.

Remember the change of date—March 15, Bassano Bearcats Dance and Amateur Hour; Masonic Hall, 8:00 p.m.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

By "Pete"

The Bassano High School, although rather inactive this season, has now launched a campaign to produce a Year Book worthy of the establishment. The staff, with Eleanor Ferraby as Editor-in-Chief is very enthusiastic and competent as it has shown exceptionally fine progress for only a few days. The staff is peculiarly representative of the large school unit. The Editor hails from Countess. Advertising and Business Manager, Stan Storaunce is the local representative. Roberta Merrick, Rainier student, received the position of Literary Editor. The staff is interested in stimulating creative writing genulises as they have issued this plea for poems, original articles, etc. Harry Denny will ponder over the sports files of the local "by" as he is responsible in that department. Nella McLevy, Majorville, has been charged with the social department of the book. Lloyd Marquis, secretary of the staff, comes from Duchess.

Inaugurated last term the year book is the practical application of the English course and gives students invaluable literary practise as well as commercial dealings.

This year an added feature of the book will be the dormitory supplement.

Grade XII students this week uttered long sighs of relief as it was announced supplementary examinations were still to be held in August. It was feared that the Department would abolish them under the new system. Hopes were raised as the inspirational thought of a "second chance" would again be given. After such a fine record last year it is hoped that very few students will have to take advantage of the "supps."

The High School Dance last Friday night wasn't such a financial success yet those who attended report a fair time. This observer would remark it was more of a public demonstration of "tripping"—and I do mean tripping—the light fantastic. The Rutaskas' Rhythm Rascals kept beating out the rhythm till the small hours.

It is hoped that the next high school affair will be better advertised and better attended.

With four of the Juveniles signed up with the Bearcats the Clippers, High School hockey sextet, have been very inactive. The team, however, has been going through ardent practises with their "Big Brothers."

The High School will be well represented when the Bearcats skate down the play off trail. Bacha, Broadfoot, Doug MacLean and McBride as well as Vice-Prin-

Daily Mirror, consists of newspaper writers on rod and gun and outdoor subjects in New York City, northern New Jersey and Connecticut.

A committee of the association carefully analyzed each of the many entries submitted in the nationwide survey, which resulted in the selection, and the award was announced at the National Sportsmen's Show, in progress here.

The award was based on the fact that Ducks Unlimited, as a non-profit making organization was the greatest single factor during 1939 in restoring the Nation's duck flights. The increase in the nation's duck population is attributed largely to the extensive work it has done, through voluntary co-operation of sportsmen, in the United States and Canada. Its work was particularly acclaimed by the rod and gun writers because Ducks Unlimited has attacked the problem at its root by restoration work in the breeding areas in the northern plains of Canada.

Plant CANADIAN CERTIFIED SEED

MAKE plans early this year to harvest a bumper crop of smooth, clean, high-quality potatoes. Good seed is the first requirement for an excellent crop... because only good seed will grow vigorous plants, plants that can withstand most of the serious diseases common to potatoes.

Canadian Certified Seed Potatoes are good seed potatoes. By planting them, many of the losses due to disease will be avoided... higher-quality, cleaner, smoother, more uniform potatoes than those grown from ordinary seed stock will be produced.

So, this season, harvest finer potatoes—and more of them. Plant Canadian Certified Seed. Grow potatoes that will grade Canada No. 1. Canadian Certified Seed Potatoes are available in all standard varieties. Be sure to select the variety most suitable for your locality! Ask the local District Government Inspector, Plant Protection Division, for full information and list of nearest distributors.

News Notes From District Correspondents

MAKEPEACE

Due to the heavy snowfall last week-end we find the roads heavily drifted in some districts. The earlier part of the week made it quite difficult to travel by car. Each day however, a few more gather at the local store and before long everyone will be out again.

A large crowd gathered here Friday last, to attend the motion pictures sponsored by the Alberta Wheat Pool and also to attend the U. F. A. meeting. Mr. Ben Plumer gave very interesting talks during the evening, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed.

Miss Betty Drummond has recovered from her illness, and is now back at school.

Mrs. I. Hefflebower, and Mr. O. Bessen were dinner guests Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. King.

Miss Helen Martin spent the week-end in town visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Martin.

Mr. Carr was a Calgary visitor last week.

Mr. E. Schaffeur and Mr. E. Bray were among the brave adventurers this week as they were the first gentlemen to go to Bassano.

Mr. Bert Rose is spending a short holiday in Calgary this week.

Hit The BROOM!

Behind The Scenes At The Local Curling Rink.

By D. L. Downs

Recovering from a 16-2 defeat by the Larry Edwards rink in the semi-finals of the merchants event, our down trodden club president came back strong with a grand finish to capture the major award in the consolation event in the local mixed bonspiel just completed. It is common knowledge that the Edwards aggregation is not as superior to the Young rink as the score would indicate but it happened to be one of those games when every member of Young's rink, including our good friend Lazareth (Ken Hansen) to use a common expression went completely haywire. However, dropping back into the consolation, skipper Young and his group of rock pushers made a good job of this event, taking a game from Waller in the semi-finals, in a game that was measured by inches, and downing Jerry Flood and his rink in the final by a four point margin. Again it is proven; patience and perseverance will always win out. It is rumored, when Irvine has mastered the art of taking pictures with his newly acquired camera, the entire populace of Bassano is going to besiege him for autographed snaps of himself.

The finals of the two major events were played out last Saturday night and proved to be very lopsided affairs. Neither game went the full route; Brocklebank trouncing Redmond and Edwards performing the same operation on Meeres. So sure was the Redmond rink of winning the swanky dress shirts that their skip gave all his others to charity and whether it was the trip to Calgary just prior to this game or from having to go without a shirt, Reddy, is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

There is more than one way of skinning a cat says Teenie Murdock as she comes up at the end of a game with a score of 28.

A one act drama was enacted at the rink the other night when a group of curlers staged a challenge game on a vacant sheet of ice during the finals of the mixed bonspiel. The original score for this play was intended to be a comedy in two parts entitled "Before and After". Due to a slight mishap in the production of the first act all original plans to produce a comedy was scrapped and the balance of the script arranged in drama with a title of "X marks the Spot". So realistic was this short play that not only the audience but several of the participants mopped tear stained eyes with linen handkerchiefs. Leading actors and actresses in grand opera often have complete nervous breakdowns following trying roles, necessitating an immediate change of climate and a prolonged rest. Following the trying role of the leading man in the above mentioned play, he too thought a change of climate might help him so sought refuge in a nearby town, but found rest was impossible as his reputation traveled much faster than he did, consequently not a moment's peace has he had. It is rumored that although the play was not a financial success this was no fault of the producers but may be attributed to the fact that most of the proceeds became frozen assets.

On Wednesday of this week, eight curlers from the local club paid a return visit to Brooks, in line of that club's journey to Bassano last month. To our neighboring town the locals are very appreciative for the splendid hospitality shown them. The prestige of the curling club was maintained by two decisive wins over the Brooks club. Keith defeated Dillon 12-6, and Brocklebank won from Marcy 14-10. Each player from the local rink was assessed a fee of 50c to defray a portion of the expenses. We should say all the players except Redmond; his after-dinner's entertainment cost him twice that amount. Fifty cents for his share of the expenses and he is out another fifty cents for merchandise he left in Brooks.

This year the draw committee in the mixed bonspiel, arranged the personnel of the rinks in such a manner that their would be not more than one member of a family on any rink. This was done in order that there would be a better distribution of the prizes. In spite of this forethought this is what happened. Mr. and Mrs. Brocklebank, playing on separate rinks win prizes; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Johnson, also on different rinks, both win prizes. Two went into the McCullough residence tokens of Mr. and Mrs. McCullough's ability to perform on different rinks. We do not wish to contend for a moment that this should not be, but point this out just to show that it is not where one performs

WEDDINGS

DUNN—OULTON

A pretty wedding took place at St. Paul's United church, Calgary, on Saturday afternoon, February 24th, when Evelyn Beatrice, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Oulton, became the bride of Edmund S. Dunn youngest son of Mrs. Robert Dunn of Medicine Hat. Rev. W. Bainbridge officiated.

The bridesmaid was Miss Phyllis Dunn, sister of the bridegroom, whose brother Mr. Robert Dunn was groomsmen.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's parents home, where Mrs. Oulton received wearing a gown of black velvet with a corsage of Talisman roses. Mrs. Dunn, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy silk suit with grey accessories, and wore a corsage of pink roses. The table in the dining room was prettily decorated and centred with a wedding cake. It was lighted with pink candles.

Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. C. J. Stuart and Mrs. L. Oulton. Later the bride and bridegroom left for Toronto, where the bridegroom is an officer in the air force.

Miss Oulton was formerly a Music Teacher in Bassano, and her many friends here wish her every happiness in the future. A number of local folk were present at the station the early part of the week to greet the couple as the train passed through.

but the ability with which one performs.

Mrs. Hassarab feels that the purchase of her curling ticket was like buying an old teapot at an antique shop and when one gets it home finds a ten dollar bill stuffed down the spout. In other words she feels that she is getting more than she paid for and would not mourn the least if a chinook should remove the object of her attractions in the east end of town. She added to this statement by saying, "never has she enjoyed her curling so much as she did this year."

Aspirants among the male curlers for tentative positions of third during next years campaign are becoming slightly dismayed by the showing some of the women made during the mixed bonspiel.

A number of the people are wondering how come one of our most prominent skips in the person of Artie Simpson, did not take part in the mixed bonspiel. For the benefit of those who are still wondering, Artie was not curling because he had anticipated being away during that week. When his plans were altered, it was too late for him to enter a rink in the spiel. Not only was it unfortunate for Artie's sake that he was not participating but unfortunate for several others who would have liked to have curled but could not do so because they did not have a skip.
